ZIPLINING

Lincoln is home to two year-round zipline companies. Put on your layers and strap in for a high-flying fun amongst the trees. Alpine Adventures offers two ziplining tours during the winter months. The Tree Top Canopy Tour has six separate ziplines ranging from 250 feet up to 100 feet long. The Skyrider Tour course contains five ziplines and five suspended bridges. You'll finish your adventure off with the "White Knuckle Pine," where you can reach speeds of 50 mph. All tours will take a hot chocolate break in Alpine Adventure's rustic tree house. Loon Mountain also offers a winter zipline across the Pemigewasset River.

KICK BACK AND RELAX AT THE SPA

The Solstice North Day Spa inside the RiverWalk Resort is a full-service day spa offering all the services you need to refresh and relax from head to toe. Start your spa day with a Signature Massage to release all the tension out of your body. Follow your massage with a Signature Relaxing Facial to pamper your face. Top off your spa day with a Solstice Classic Manicure or Pedicure. Better yet? Treat yourself to both! After all, you deserve it.
But you're not done yet. You can still relax in the hot tub or swimming pool. The swimming pool is heated to 80 degrees, so you can still enjoy it during even the coldest day. The hot tubs, both the indoor and outdoor tubs, are a great way to finish your day.

Maybe your favorite thing about winter is being nice and warm inside, taking some time for yourself and treating yourself. Put your feet up, grab a tea or glass or wine and enjoy some pampering and relaxation at Balanced Rock Bodyworks, Viaggio Spa or Solstice North Day Spa. Whether you want to melt away your stress with a massage or facial or get a manicure and pedicure, these Western White Mountain spas have a long list of services for you to choose from.
